Absolutely not!! Α. While patching may not always look the best, your ride and safety on the road is what is important and not the "look" of the pavement. It is a total waste of taxpayer funds to completely repave a road when there are only small weak spots that can be treated with patching. Once a particular road bed is rated by the Road Department to require complete resurfacing, then that is performed. In the past four years we have resurfaced over 35 miles of asphalt roads at a cost of over $3-million and paved with surface treatment, over 13 miles of new gravel roads at a cost of over $1 million. This does not include mowing over several thousand miles, graveling and grading roads, cleaning out ditches, patching hundreds of miles of pavement, making and replacing thousands of road and street signs, and maintenance of all smelled the flask and told Clifford he was being arrested for illegal possession of alcohol. The 75 year old Clifford told the young deputy that he was a self-appointed know-it-all and struck the deputy across the top of his head with a walking cane

My 16 year old father jumped in between the deputy and Clifford just as the deputy was pulling out his billy stick. the deputy told my dad that he was going to teach that old man a lesson. Just in time the supplier of Clifford's alcohol and the boss of the young deputy came walking into the pool room. Chief Looney demanded to know what these two were fighting about. Just as the deputy was about to tell his side of the story Clifford landed another lucky, but feeble blow to the head of the deputy. The Chief walked the young deputy outside and explained that Clifford Hyde was one of the Grand Old Men of Phil Campbell and that his liquor was supplied by the Chief himself. The next week the deputy and Clifford were seen sitting in the pool room together laughing and enjoying one another's company.

A few years later Clifford learned he had not killed the man in Georgia. So to show his gratitude, Clifford quit the bottle and began going to church. He even got saved and baptized. Clifford died at the ripe old age 91 and was still known as the Grand Old Man of Phil Campbell.

John Nix and the Country Cousins at Old Courthouse October 14th

The Sorghum Festival is here again, and the festival wouldn't be complete without John Nix and the Country Cousins. This Union County group of musicians has been a part of the Sorghum since its beginnings, and is a vital part of Union County's musical history.

The Union County Historical Society is pleased to have John and the current edition of the Country Cousins perform in concert at The Old Courthouse on the Square at 7 p.m. on Friday, October 14.

The band was started with the Nix brothers performing at home. There were four brothers in the beginning: Homer, Clayton, Cranford, and John. Homer dropped out, and since then a number of country cousins have performed in the band. John is the only brother left, but he still carries on the tradition. John and the Country Cousins were honored by the Union County Historical Society earlier this year with a bugs in walls or attic spaces, spraying insecticides will indeed kill many of them, but it won't prevent more from moving in. Also, having a large amount of dead stink bugs in your home will promote carpet beetle infestations, as they feed on dead insects. Carpet beetles also feed on wool clothing and other animal products, so it is best to try to prevent stink bugs from entering in the first place.

Though these pesky critters can be annoying and give off a bad smell, they are not harmful. They may startle you as they fly around your house, but they won't bite, sting, or infest your home, so don't worry too much. Just seal up your house to try to avoid the problem next year!

ing, and increased spotting. Fire intensities will be higher than normal which will likely preclude direct attack of fires. Expect the need for extended mop-up. Expect an increase in long duration fires; with heavy fuels being available to burn and leaves coming off of trees expect a higher than normal probability of re-burn on contained fires. Message to firefighters, nber to Stop Think and Talk before you Act ... actively look for ways to minimize risk to firefighters in what is forecast to be a period of very high fire danger. Area of concern: Alabama, Mississippi, Central and north Georgia, Tennessee and the mountain areas of Western South Carolina and North Carolina. If this doesn't get your attention, you haven't been paying attention for the past several years or have your head in the sand. We hope it doesn't happen but we must be prepared for the worst so if a wildfire does strike we can survive it with all of our stuff and our lives intact. It's also very important to remember Ready-Set-Go... prepare for the worst (Ready) have a plan and be aware of conditions (Set) and when the call comes out for a fire or you smell smoke, leave immediately (Go) and let the professional firefighters get in and protect your assets. We hope that we are lucky and dodge a wildfire, but don't count on it because someone will have one, guaranteed, and we just hope that someone is not us. Prepare for the worst case scenario and use the Firewise guides and act now to create defensible space around your homes and buildings to reduce the risk for a fire. Being Firewise doesn't guarantee that a fire will skip your property but it sure helps... as the old saying goes, "it's better to have it and not need it than to need it and not have it!" Please use care with any outdoor burning including fire pits and/or campfires. Check with the Georgia Forestry Commission concerning the issuance permits before igniting any debris even a small leaf pile, because large wildfires are started from a small fire. With any fire, drown, stir and mix, and feel campfires. If in doubt, don't burn, because once a fire starts it's very hard to control. For more information, contact your local Georgia Forestry Commission, US Forest Service, or RC&D. For more information email: Info.ccrcd@ gmail.com
