

25th Kiwanis golf tournament to benefit local youth

On Friday, the 25th, the Blairsville Kiwanis will host the 25th edition of its annual golf tournament at Old Union Golf Course with proceeds going to scholarships and youth projects in Union County.

Challenge, presented by King Ford.

Teams may register together, or you may enter individually and be placed on a team that doesn't have enough to make a foursome. At this time there is no limit on how many teams may enter. While registering prior to the tournament is preferred, they will accept walk-in on the day of.

"We're not going to turn anyone away who's willing to participate and help the cause," said Jimmy Nichols.

There are other ways to support the tournament, such as, choosing to become one of the six different levels of sponsors, beginning with a donation of less than $100 or a door prize.

For $100 you can become a Bronze Level Sponsor, which includes your name mentioned on the brochure and a hole or tee box sponsor sign.

Silver Level Sponsorship is $250, which includes one player's fee, plus signage at the clubhouse.

You can become a Gold Level Sponsor for $400. It includes your foursome with eight mulligans, a hole or tee box sign, as well as a logoed sponsor ad on the brochure.

Platinum Level Sponsorship is $500 and includes your foursome with eight mulligans, logoed ad on tournament handouts, hole sponsor sign and mention in the newspaper article.

Finally, you can become a Refreshment Cart Sponsor for $250 and get your name displayed on the refreshment cart to be driven throughout the tournament.

To register or learn more about sponsorships, please contact Jimmy Nichols at (706) 781-9075 or Mary Colwell at (706) 781-8489.

Gray receives CSB scholarship

Community and Southern Bank (CSB) - through the CSB Foundation, the bank's nonprofit, charitable organization - has awarded 15 recent Georgia high school graduates a $2,000 college scholarship. The winners of the inaugural CSB Foundation Scholarships were selected through an essay contest where students explained why they should be awarded the financial support. Each applicant also provided a recommendation letter from a former teacher or guidance counselor. High Schools across the Bank's footprint were selected to participate in the competition.

Scholarship winners were presented the scholarships and congratulated by CSB's Chief Executive Officer, Pat Frawley, and other members of the Foundation Board, at The Georgian Club in Atlanta, Ga., on June 30.

"CSB is committed to investing in the continued education of our communities' future leaders," says Pat Frawley, CEO of CSB. "Our scholarship winners were highly praised by their high school mentors for their work ethic, attitudes and dedication to their communities, among other traits. We are proud to present our CSB Foundation Scholarships to these deserving students, and we wish them well as they continue their education and leadership development."

Lady Panthers take two on-the-chin at Social Circle; split four games at Cherokee Tournament in Woodstock over the weekend

Laken Chambers (left) and Karley Nix (right) at Social Circle last week. The Lady Panthers let a 5-1 lead slip away over the final two innings during a 6-5 loss in game one. In the second game it was all Lady Redskins in a 12-0 rout of Union. The Lady Panthers fall to third place in 8-AA with two games with first place Washington Wilkes on tap next week. Over the weekend, Union went to Woodstock, where they picked up wins over Pope and Milton but fell to Cherokee County and Gilmer County. The Lady Panthers varsity squad is off this week. Further details and stats from last weeks games at Social Circle and Woodstock will be in next week's edition of the North Georgia News. Photos/Todd Forrest
