UCMS takes care of Lumpkin 15-14

The Union County Middle School Panthers visited Lumpkin last week and escaped with a 15-14 win. Dahlonge - The Union County Middle School Panthers were able to turn things around with a nail biting win at Lumpkin County 15-14. The victory comes on the heels of a tough loss to Gilmer County the previous week. Chad Buzzard and Brian Smith provided the Panthers' touchdowns. Kannon Hemphill's two-point conversion was the difference in the one-point win. Mason McCombs connected on Union's lone extra point attempt. "Kannon did awesome job of controlling the game with his passing and the offensive line did very well in pass protection," Union County Head Coach Gary Butler said. "The defense had some moments not stopping the run, but at right moment they started denying Lumpkin's offense on the run or the pass. "They stepped up on crucial plays as a whole and made some big plays to come out with a win. The offensive, defensive and special teams played with a lot of heart and passion." Union will be at Dawson on Thursday at 5:30 p.m.
